Job Summary

The Landscape Laborer (LL) - Equipment Operator, classified as union Apprentice/Journeyworker, works as part of a team on a wide variety of ecological restoration and native plant installation projects. This position is not solely focused on, but emphasizes use of machinery like tractors and skidsteers. These projects typically include work on commercial and public spaces across a wide range of scale and scope. Work generally includes soil work, seeding, erosion control, and planting. LLs are expected to meet daily objectives regarding project goals, paces, and safely completing the work within a given time and budget. LLs are expected to drive the in-field work trucks on occasion. This position is physically demanding, requiring long, consecutive days performing repetitive tasks in various weather and topographic conditions. Projects are located in the Twin Cities and Upper Midwest.

The ideal candidate for this position is highly reliable, consistent, and capable of performing physically demanding tasks in outdoor environments. They should be comfortable working in varied seasonal weather conditions and demonstrate a strong work ethic, attention to detail, and the ability to work effectively both independently and as part of a team. They should possess equipment operation experience in a landscape setting.

Starting wages vary based upon experience, but range from $25.33-$31.66/hr for on-job, union covered work. Non-covered work may be available at a negotiated rate to be determined. Union members enjoy a suite of union benefits including but not limited to vacation, health coverage, and pension.
